

SPECIFICATION: LODECKA

DESCRIPTION

Giving greater loading capability but still maintaining its inherent lightweight construction, the Lodecka makes dry freight contracts seem like a walk in the park. The considerably lower loading height means there is no need for a heavy tail lift, maximising the payload.

KEY FEATURES & BENEFITS

- 9mm thick birch phenolic flooring, bonded and fastened to steel platform
- 14mm GRP Side Panels - pre finished in white
- 11mm GRP Bulkhead Panel
- Aerodynamic GRP moulded Luton pod head - white impregnated finish
- Aluminium roof system c/w GRP roof skin - anodised
- OEM rear light clusters and number plate light refitted to rear shroud section
- Lightweight rear barn doors c/w integral cam locks and recessed pin handles, door retainers & buffers
- LED interior light PIR controlled
- Internal wheelboxes to provide maximum internal aperture
- One row of Loadlok track each side @ 1000mm from bed
- No painting required or necessary
- Body water tested
- Fully Type Approved specification
- Payload capacity exceeding 1200kg*

*applicable to make & model shown above. This will vary between manufacturers.

0117 965 9965

sales@tgs-group.com

tgs-group.com